Summary

The target appear to be in warm tropical-like environment. An object present was old and worned and perhaps wooden - There was a feeling of containing or holding purpose. Several verticle objects were present that reminds me of trees or tropical vegetation. Colors of greens and blues were predominant. Element water splashing or moving were perceived. It was warm, sunny, and bright. The overall feeling was pleasant. The main ~~ma~~ object may have been somewhat rounded or circular.
Strong AOL of Island Environment.
